Consent Agenda

Motion by Scott Eno and seconded by Steve Crusoe to approve November 11, 2019 minutes and financial report. Motion carried. Charlie Veneros pointed out a discrepancy regarding the report on Travis Horrocks. It should say that the new assistant will be getting a salary of $40,000.

Reports

Charles Veneros attended the Cheboygan County Road Commission meeting. He commented that the remaining work on Long Lake Rd. will be completed in the spring. Pavement markings will cost $3,016 and restoration (topsoil, seed and mulch) at $18,480. Discussion on Long Lake loan repayment that begins 04/01/2020.

Old Business

Charlie Veneros asked about the website. Chuck Maziasz stated that Mason Elliott from Social Solutions moved to Grand Rapids and cannot attend the meetings. Charlie Veneros suggested looking into Shumacker Technology Group who he met at a meeting he attended. Shumacker Technology group performed an assessment on Aloha's website and had recommendations. Charlie suggested looking at the websites they have done for other townships. New deposit signatures cards with the current deputies have been requested at Citizens National Bank and M Bank.

New Business

MTA meeting December 5th at Burt Township.
